

Environmental And Waste Management Policy Statement

Robert Heath Heating Limited are committed towards an evolving policy of Environmental Management in which the efficient use of materials and processes brings about effective improvement between an organisation and its natural environment.

Whilst at present there is no statutory duty on employers to implement an Environmental Management System, our Company has achieved International Standard ISO 14001.

To enable these duties to be carried out, it is our intent to ensure that all responsibilities for environmental matters are assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within our organisational structure.

Our commitment towards a cleaner environment

Robert Heath Heating Limited are bound by the regulations of all tender documentation to follow set procedures laid down by local authorities and housing associations. In all cases these regulations set stringent environmental standards on pollution, safety and other environmental risk.

Together with the above, we will so far as is reasonably practical:

- Comply fully with all relevant legal requirements, codes of practice and regulations.
- Prevent pollution to land, air and water.
- Reduce water and energy use.
- Minimise waste and increase recycling within the framework of our waste management procedures.
- Identify and manage environmental risks and hazards.
- Involve customers, partners, clients, suppliers and subcontractors in the implementation of our objectives.
- Promote environmentally responsible purchasing.
- Provide suitable training to enable employees to deal with their specific areas of environmental control.
- Improve the environmental efficiency of our transport and travel.
- Establish targets to measure the continuous improvement in our environmental performance.
- Maintain a commitment to purchase British Standard supplies from reputable companies; as such not purchasing the cheapest products that would compromise our workmanship and reputation.
- Set targets and put monitoring in place to reduce the amount of paper the firm uses.

By means of this policy statement, Robert Heath Heating Limited is showing its' commitment to a practical and workable environment policy that can evolve over time and benefit our natural environment.
